

International
Summer School
on Regulation of Local Public
Services

TURIN
SCHOOL
OF LOCAL REGULATION

19th Edition
Torino,
5-16 Sept. 2016

ROUND TABLE

Sharing economy and disruptive technologies: new challenges for regulators

9 September, 2016 – h. 17.30 -19.00
Socialfare, Via Maria Vittoria 38, Torino

"Uber, the world's largest taxi company, owns no vehicles. Facebook, the world's most popular media owner, creates no content. Alibaba, the most valuable retailer, has no inventory. And Airbnb, the world's largest accommodation provider, owns no real estate. Something interesting is happening."

Tom Goodwin

Local policy and regulation of services and infrastructures struggle to cope with new technologies that change the way people take decisions about basic needs linked to mobility, communication, accommodation, leisure, food, and rental. Thanks to apps for smartphones, the framework for the demand/supply has dramatically changed. The round table will explore the peculiarities of the so-called sharing economy and will stimulate some reflection upon how a sound regulation can improve competition in the interest of consumers.

Benedetta ARESE LUCINI, Oval (ovalmoney.com), former country manager Uber Italy

Andrea CAMANZI, Transport Regulatory Authority

Meltem BAGIS AKKAYA, Turkish Competition Authority

Franco BECCHIS, Turin School of Local Regulation

Gianluca RANNO, Gnammo (gnammo.com)

Veronica TENTORI, Member of the Italian Parliament, signatory of the first European legislation on sharing economy

Chair: Laura ORESTANO, SocialFare® | Centre for Social Innovation

Participation is free. To register to the round table please send an email to info@turinschool.eu within September 7th.

The event is organized in the framework of the 19th International Summer School on Regulation of Local Public Services

The institutional activities are supported by

In cooperation with

